Peace Tanabata Project

*"There are countries and regions that are still at war, and the world is not peaceful."
"Climate disasters are also caused by global warming. What can we do to protect the global environment and realize a sustainable society?"
"We would like to think about what we can do to achieve 'peace' and a 'sustainable society.'"*

The Youth Division of the Sendai UNESCO Association participates in the Sendai Tanabata Festival to spread the message of "peace" and "realization of a sustainable society". We are looking for high school students, university students, and international students to work with. How to participate: (1) Design Tanabata decorations (2) Make Tanabata decorations (3) Call for strips on the day of Tanabata. You don't have to participate in all of them, but any of them is OK. To apply, please contact us by e-mail with your name and school name. You may contact us as a school.

E-mail address: Sendai UNESCO Association unesco1947@gmail.com

(1) Tanabata decoration design: At the first gathering on July 6th, we will discuss and decide. You can give a presentation on the day or send it by email in advance.
